Tutoring Experience

For the past seven years, I've helped students from diverse backgrounds succeed in Chemistry, particularly in IB, A-Level, and IGCSE curricula. My approach ensures students grasp key concepts, which in turn boosts their performance in exams and overall understanding of the subject. I have guided numerous students to achieve top marks, many of whom have gone on to study at prestigious universities.

In addition to IB Chemistry, I offer tutoring for AP Chemistry and A-Level Chemistry, providing tailored support for each curriculum. My tutoring is aimed at building a strong foundation for students, helping them navigate complex topics with ease and confidence. Whether preparing for exams or solidifying classroom learning, I make Chemistry approachable and engaging.
